For years New Yorkers have been banned from receiving wine shipments from out-of-state wine stores, retailers, auction houses and wine-of-the-month clubs. But with the introduction of a retailer wine shipping bill in the NY Assembly and Senate, New Yorkers have a chance to bring free trade and wine freedom to their state.

New York Senator Shelley Mayer and Assemblywoman Amy Paulin have introduced legislation that will end this ban on shipments to New York wine lovers from out-of-state retailers. Assemblywoman Paulin introduced A799 in the Assembly and Senator Mayer introduced the same bill, S7740 in the NY Senate.

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT NEW YORK LAWMAKERS KNOW YOU SUPPORT THESE BILLS.

IT IS CRITICAL YOU MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD BY TAKING 30 SECONDS TO SEND AN EMAIL TO YOUR STATE SENATOR & REPRESENTATIVE EXPRESSING YOUR SUPPORT AND ASKING FOR THEIR SUPPORT AND SPONSORSHIP OF THE BILLS

Assembly Bill A799 and Senate Bill 7740 would allow New York consumers to receive up to 36 cases annually from an out-of-state wine retailer. The retailer would be required to obtain a permit, remit sales taxes to New

A799 and S7740 would allow New Yorkers to receive wine shipments from an out-of-state wine store. The bill regulates the shipments the same way shipments from out-of-state wineries are regulated. The state of NY gets sales taxes, adults must sign for the wine and there are also limits on how much a consumer can
